Call for Delegate CAW Women's Conference

The CAW's Women's Conference will be held at the CAW Family Education Centre in Port Elgin, Ontario on Aug 24-27, 2003.

This year's conference is entitled "CAW Organizing for Change - When Women Support Women, Women win".

The conference will examine the dramatic impact social spending cuts have had on women. Workshops will focus on women mobilizing women in workplaces and communities to create a collective voice as we demand political support for key issues important to women. The conference will also feature Canadian women politicians at the municipal, provincial and federal levels to talk about their experiences and provide insight and inspiration.

CAW Local 2245 will be sending one delegate to this conference. Leave will be the delegate's responsibility, but conference costs, travel, accommodation and meals will be paid by CAW Local 2245.

One member will be selected by a draw of names at Thompson FSS on July 20th.

There is no time like the present to get involved!!!

If you are interested, please send your name, phone number and email to the undersigned by Saturday July 19th.
